Manager's Letter

Welcome

TO THE SALT LAKE HOME SHOW

IT'S A NEW YEAR FULL OF NEW IDEAS, design, renovation, and trends at the Salt Lake Home Show! Our team is excited to host a national TV celebrity guest, local industry experts, and share the latest products and services on the market. Our team is proud to be your resource for creative inspiration and helpful advice for all of your home improvement projects and needs.

This year, the 2022 Salt Lake Home Show welcomes Darren Keefe of HGTV's relaunch of Extreme Makeover: Home Edition. Born in Northern Ireland to a long line of Irish craftsmen and farmers Keefe is one of the three ultra-talented team of new designers on the show. Together with host Jesse Tyler Ferguson, Keefe helps build incredible new homes for deserving families in just 5 days. We're also pleased to announce that we will have Brandon and Mike Kay of the JunkHunks, brothers and small-town country boys, they have a talent for taking junk and turning it into beautiful creations. Keefe and the JunkHunks will share valuable insider knowledge plus renovation tips on the Design Stage. Additionally, we will have local design experts demonstrate how to make your home the best it can be.

We encourage you to browse the hundreds of vendor booths and speak to the many industry experts about your next home project. Thank you for welcoming the Salt Lake Home Show team into your home. We continue to strive to be your number one source for the highest quality home improvement, design, and landscaping products and services. We love to hear from you, so please join us on Facebook!

See you at the Home Show,

Ian Richmond

MEET HGTV'S DARREN KEEFE

Dancing Carpenter, Master Craftsman and HGTV host

BORN IN NORTHERN IRELAND, to a long line of Irish craftsmen and farmers, Darren Keefe is one of the new faces of HGTV's relaunch of Extreme Makeover: Home Edition. Known on Instagram as "The Dancing Carpenter", Keefe is one of the three ultra-talented new team members. Together with host Jesse Tyler Ferguson, Keefe helps build incredible new homes for deserving families in just 5 days. Keefe has also worked with Nicole Curtis of HGTV's Rehab Addict on the new Quarantine-inspired series Fix My Fail and previously on television series Lost, Sons of Anarchy and NCIS.

It was during his time in Los Angeles while pursuing a career in film and television that he worked with a local contractor specializing in kitchen and bathroom remodels, where he found himself inspired by the design process; the layout of the room and finishing touches.

Out of his passion for design and construction, Keefe's company Drumcree Designs was born. Drumcree Designs centers around Keefe's expertise in design and custom fabrication, plus his craftsmanship skills of welding and fine woodworking. Drumcree Designs clients include local businesses, interior designers and celebrities who commission one-of-a-kind, handcrafted furniture pieces.

Currently, Keefe is residing in Charleston, South Carolina, renovating and designing two homes while focusing on his company, but he will be coming to Utah soon to share his expert tips on home renovation and design. To get to know Keefe more, we asked him the following questions.

Q. What tool should every homeowner own?
A. Hardware stores usually offer combo kits from tool manufacturers. Combos usually include a drill, a circular saw, Sawzall and/or multi-tool. This is the perfect all-in-one kit to tackle the weekend punch list.

Q. Wallpaper: love or hate?
A. Wallpaper is making a big comeback. I love it. But just know—when the pattern trends out, be prepared to put forth a little elbow grease for removal.

Q. Are you a plant guy, or is your green thumb lacking?
A. I have a couple plants in my house. I was encouraged to talk to them. Hopefully no one films me talking to a plant over my morning coffee - I might get sent to an asylum.

Q. Favorite HGTV Series?
A. Cheap Old Houses. I love old homes and the romantic notion of fixing them up.

Q. What's the biggest DIY fail you've seen?
A. I witnessed someone cut a gas line with a Sawzall once during a remodel. That someone was me.

Q. What's your favorite paint color?
A. I love blue. I love a blue front door.

Q. Any simple tips for upgrading a small bathroom?
A. Bathrooms are definitely a DIY doable endeavor. As long as the plumbing connections have no issue. You can stick with your current layout and upgrade the sink, fixtures, toilet, etc. Tile is another doable DIY. There are thousands of how-to videos out there to help!

Q. What are you currently reading?
A. Who Not How by Dan Sullivan

Q. Favorite room in your home?
A. Living Room!

Q. Any furniture thrifting tips?
A. Buy a used dresser or hutch you love, paint it, and add new hardware. It will last far longer than the particle board furniture being sold at box stores.

Q. What are your travel essentials?
A. Headphones, iPad, Jump Rope, Junior Mints

Q. Favorite kitchen gadget?
A. Juicer or Blender!

Q. What home trends are you loving?
A. Glazed ceramic Spanish tile. Exposed reclaimed Oak.

Q. Are you a fan of the Mari Kondo method? What's your best organization hack?
A. I need to hire Mari Kondo. I'm a mess. LOL. I have no hacks. Hack - Hide the clutter in the closet before guests arrive.

Q. Which HGTV / DIY Network star would you most like to work with and why?
A. I've never met him, but Ben Napier of HomeTown seems like a good guy. Plus, I'm envious of his woodshop.

Q. What's your favorite part about speaking at a home show?
A. Meeting people. Life is about connection.

See Darren Keefe on the Design Stage on Friday and Saturday only. You'll have the opportunity to ask questions and learn more about what it takes to transform your home from drab to fab!

BRANDON AND MIKE KAY, THE JUNKHUNKS, are brothers and small-town country boys who have a talent for taking junk and turning it into beautiful creations. Born and raised in the small town of Mona, UT, these creatives rely on their extensive career knowledge of interior design and the real estate market.

With multiple house flips, renovations, TV guest appearances, and top sellers at market venues across the country, these hunks are trendsetters. Making it easy and affordable while never losing their classic “JunkHunks” style. No dumpster or trash pile is off limits when the boys are in town, and that is just the way they like it. A true example of trash to treasure. They’re free spirits, rugged wanderers, thrift store junkies, DIY enthusiasts, and flannel wearing craftsmen.

We asked Brandon and Mike a series of questions about their approach to home design and life. Here’s what they had to say.

Q. What’s an easy DIY project homeowners can tackle to improve their space?

Brandon: One of the easiest DIY projects a homeowner can do to improve their space is wall treatments. I recommend trying one of these three options:

1. Paint. A fresh coat of paint in a new color, sheen, or on a focal wall can make a huge difference. It’s affordable, user friendly, and creates an instant impact on the overall feel of the space. This is our go to for an “instant gratification” change.

2. Wallpaper. Wallpaper is no longer a thing of the past. There are so many amazing colors, textures, and exciting prints available these days. Full-size murals and custom prints are a great avenue to explore and bring uniqueness unlike anything else.

3. Texture. Your walls are a great place to explore texture. Shiplap, joint compound, metal sheeting, tile, etc. Don’t be afraid to be bold and fearless when choosing this option.

Mike: Curtains. Want to make your space go from average to designer look? Do your research and hang them correctly. The #1 mistake is hanging your curtain rods too low (don’t hang them directly over the top of the window.) Consider sewing additional material onto the curtain to increase the overall length. A window treatment that goes floor to ceiling will blow your mind!

Q. What was the last picture you took with your phone?

Brandon: LOL. This could be a little embarrassing. The last picture I took on my phone was of our miniature Highpark cow appropriately named Mini Moo. Needless to say, she wasn’t as impressed as I was.

Mike: Just finished doing some late-night yard work and sat down to take a break. I’m obsessed with yard work, and wanted to give my brother some yard envy, ha-ha.

Q. What project have you been most proud to work on?

Brandon: Oh, this is a hard one. I think that I value the “House Flip” projects the most. Seeing the potential in each one is my favorite part... hands down.... no matter how bad they may be at first. I love standing in the middle of a room and imagining and dreaming what the space can become. Those quiet moments of peace and excitement are my drug. Then fast forward through a ton of hard work, sweat, problems, dilemmas, and a few hundred ounces of caffeine to the finished product--this process is my favorite. I enjoy this most because I am a dreamer. Always be a dreamer!

Mike: My home. It wasn’t until I started to remodel it that I discovered, behind layers of sheetrock, hid a log cabin from 1870! It took years of work to restore, but now when you sit in my family room, you can look at the original walls/floors and imagine what it was like to live as a pioneer. P.S. We also discovered that a pioneer family raised eleven girls in that tiny cabin.

Q. Where do you go online to find inspiration?

Brandon: The places I visit online for inspiration the most are social media platforms. There are so many incredible influencers out there. Each bringing their own flavor to the plate. I appreciate the work and thought behind each creator. The number of followers or likes do not patrol me. Oftentimes those individuals with smaller numbers have the greatest ideas and are the true trendsetters!

Mike: Pinterest. It’s a bottomless rabbit hole, and I love to go down it!

Q. What's one thing you wish every homeowner knew?

Brandon: One thing I wish every homeowner knew is that it's ok to make mistakes. Embrace the opportunities for growth through those mistakes. The truth is... we all make them. Don't be so hard on yourself or others when things don't go exactly as planned. Some of our best work and creations have started out as a mistake that took a left turn to becoming right!

Mike: Stop keeping up with the Jones's. Just because a style is popular, it doesn't mean you need to copycat. Trends will change, and you'll never be able to keep up. Do what you love and what makes you happy; even if that means your house stands out from the rest on the street. For example, The White Farmhouse... I love it, but the farmhouse style will someday be a thing of the past.

Q. What's something that folks should watch out for when working with a contractor or interior designer?

Brandon: COMMUNICATION. Take the time to make sure you get to know your contractor or interior designer. Also be flexible with their opinions and options. They are professionals for a reason. Trust in their process and communicate, communicate, communicate! What you envision inside your head is not always an easy thing to express. Making sure you are both on the same page will make the process and results a whole easier and fulfilling.

Mike: Speed isn't everything. Utah's housing crisis is encouraging rapid growth. When choosing your home builder, just remember that speed doesn't equate to quality. Pick a builder that will give you quality craftsmanship.

Q. What décor items are worth splurging on?

Brandon: The decor items worth splurging on are things that you will utilize long term, not just during that design season. Be mindful of how styles change throughout time and think ahead on what purpose it serves you personally. What is trending may not always be the best option for you or your future plans.

Mike: THE COUCH. Not only will it be a statement piece that adds to your overall design aesthetic, also make sure it's comfortable!

Q. What advice would you give to your 10-year-old self?

Brandon: I would tell my 10-year-old self to be present. Life moves fast and there are so many incredible things ahead. Stay true to yourself and hold on... it's gonna be a heck of a ride.

Mike: Words are powerful, use them wisely. Talk kindly to others, and about yourself. We are/become the words we speak.

Q. What's your best organization hack?

Brandon: My best organization hack would be... have Mike do it!!! This is definitely a skillset I'm not proficient in.

Mike: I hate the feel of a cluttered shower/bath, especially when you get a million different shampoo and body wash bottles in every corner. Purchase matching size/color bottles online. Then switch your shampoos into the matching bottles. It will make your space feel more organized and feel like a spa!

Circle Of Excellence

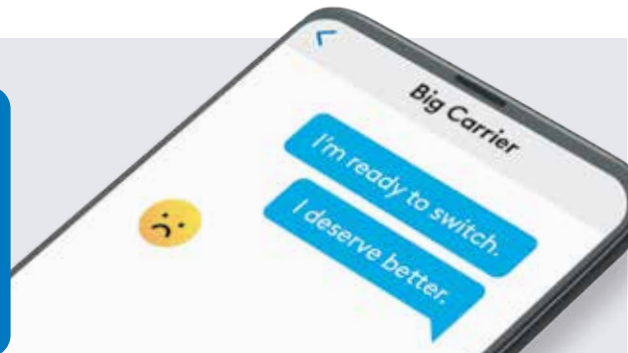

The Salt Lake Home Show team would like to honor eight exhibitors with the 2022 Circle of Excellence title. The members of our Circle of Excellence have participated in 15 or more Home Shows and earned an "A" rating or higher with the Better Business Bureau.

Thank you to this year's honorees for their outstanding commitment to current and future customers!
