

French Language Regulations

In order to satisfy all visitors, the exhibitor agrees to speak and distribute documentation in French in sufficient quantities for the duration of the event. (Quebec's Charter of the French Language requires posters and advertising to be in French, and that where one or more other languages are used, French must be the predominant language).

Section 2: Every person has a right to have the civil administration, the health services and social services, the public utility enterprises, the professional orders, the associations of employees and all enterprises doing business in Québec communicate with him in French.

Section 5: Consumers of goods and services have a right to be informed and served in French.
