

French Language Regulations

In order to satisfy all visitors, the exhibitor agrees to speak and distribute documentation in French in sufficient quantities for the duration of the event. (Quebec's Charter of the French Language requires posters and advertising to be in French, and that where one or more other languages are used, French must be the predominant language).

Source : Article 58 of the Charte de la langue française - « Public signs and posters and commercial advertising must be in French. They may also be both in French and in another language provided that French is markedly predominant. »
