- Email your customers: Email and encourage your customers to buy tickets and visit you at the show. You may include this as a sidebar in a scheduled newsletter or email.
- Email your staff: Invite your staff to support the show with their attendance as well.

SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

1. POST OFTEN

Post often on Facebook, Instagram or whatever social media platforms you use to let your customers know they can find you at the show! Include a call-to-action for them to “join you at the show” or “buy tickets now” with a link to the appropriate show website (cincinnatiholidaymarket.com) or direct ticketing link (<https://cincinnatiholidaymarket.mpetickets.com/>)

2. TAG APPROPRIATELY

When you create a new post about the show on Facebook, always tag the official Holiday Market page by typing @ and then the show name (CincyHolidayMarket). This will not only help us build momentum for the show but will also give your brand extra clout and help YOU build your social following!

3. PROMOTE SHOW EXCLUSIVES

Do you have any show specials, or new products you’ll be introducing or demo-ing at the show? Be sure to update your exhibitor listing via the link we’ve sent you to include those details. Customers love being in the know and getting exclusive deals. You can share your unique Virtual Storefront exhibitor listing link in social posts and tag us @CincyHolidayMarket.

SAMPLE POSTS

Copy and customize any of these posts and utilize them on your brand’s social accounts to promote your participation in the show. Remember to add your booth number and be sure to retype @CincyHolidayMarket to ensure you tag the official show appropriately.
