Randy Spracklin

HGTV Canada Celebrity Contractor

Randy Spracklin is a third-generation builder, co-owner of Newfound Builders Ltd, and stars in the HGTV Canada series Rock Solid Builds. He took over the family business in 2008 and grew it into a major player in the industry. Brigus is where he grew up and now it's where he and his partner are raising their two kids. It's not uncommon for his kids to check in on him while he's at work, and who knows, maybe they'll be next to take over the business. This Newfoundlander is serious about his work, but he can also be a prankster and knows it's important to have a laugh at work. If you ever get a chance to visit Brigus, there's a lot of catty stuff to see and do, so take in the scenery, check out the shop, and have a yarn, because everything's mint!

Adam Weir

Renovation Expert

Adam Weir has a multitude of interests and abilities. From a young age, he taught himself magic and worked that into a business for himself at the age of twelve. He graduated with Honours from the Television Broadcasting program at Algonquin College and moved to Montreal to further explore the Television and Movie Industry. Here he worked behind the scenes concluding with a job as a 3rd Assistant Director. That led to his own stage show as a Magician on Discovery Cruise Lines.

These experiences honed his affinity and skills in construction work. During this time, he worked in a variety of roles including construction coordinator, project manager and on-camera talent, most recently on 3 seasons of Island of Bryan. Since leaving the Island, he has produced, directed, and filmed a number of videos for suppliers and sponsors. He has most recently acquired the exclusive rights to EZ Dock in the Kawarthas (ezdockkawartha.ca).
