MEET THE MULTI-TALENTED MASTER BUILDER: HGTV AND DIY NETWORK'S KARL CHAMPLEY

For over 30 years, Karl Champley, Master Builder and well-known host of DIY Network's Wasted Spaces and winner of Ellen's Design Challenge on HGTV, has lent his commercial and residential construction expertise to countless large-scale and home projects around the globe. He built his career up from an apprentice carpenter and joiner to a project manager, finally continuing his studies to acquire a Master Builders' license. He then started his own building business, KJC Building Services, in 1990 and his professional career expanded from there.

Not only does Karl use the most effective building techniques and up-to-date designs in any project he has his hands on, he's also passionate about incorporating environmentally conscious, energy products and materials. As a result of this passion, Karl became a certified environmental home inspector and educates homeowners about the true meaning of "going green."

Karl also shares his knowledge as a radio host, author, and blogger. Most recently, he embarked on a building project where he built a new home from foundation through completion on his own.

GETTING TO KNOW KARL CHAMPLEY

Q: What's the easiest DIY project homeowners can tackle on their own?

A: Remove the clutter from your kitchen cupboards! It's time to reorganize and only keep the items that are used. Many homeowners complain that their kitchens are too small; however, once everything's sorted, the space instantly feels bigger.

Q: What's one thing we wouldn't guess about you?

A: I'm a snake handler and animal rescuer. In 2014, I joined the Wildlife Waystation team in Los Angeles. Our mission is to provide sanctuary for exotic animals and native wildlife.

Q: What's one common mistake homeowners make when they take on a new project?

A: Many homeowners don't organize the right tools, materials, and steps before starting a new project. You'll actually end up saving more time and money if you take the time to do it right.

Q: What project are you most proud of?

A: I'm most proud of my work with the world-famous Glass House in the Royal Botanical Gardens in Sydney, Australia.

A JILL OF ALL TRADES

JOANIE SPRAGUE

FROM TLC'S
TRADING SPACES

Meet the newest team member to join TLC's Trading Spaces.

Joanie Sprague recently joined the all-star team on TLC's revival of Trading Spaces. However, she is by no means new to television. Many people recognize her as the runner up on season six of the CW's America's Next Top Model and her appearances on DIY Network's Run My Renovation and Man Caves. Although Joanie's modeling career brought exciting opportunities all around the world, she always knew she wanted to break into home construction. Over the years, she broadened her home improvement knowledge and carpentry skills, which landed her a position as one of the talented carpenters on the new Trading Spaces.

SEE JOANIE ON THE DESIGN STAGE:
FRIDAY, MARCH 9 AT 3:00 PM
SATURDAY, MARCH 10 AT 11:00 AM & 8:00 PM
SUNDAY, MARCH 11 AT 12:00 PM

FIVE QUESTIONS

Q: What's an easy DIY project to start with?

A: I think closets are a simple project most people can handle on their own. A lot of builders provide a basic rod and shelving with a standard closet build, but most people need more space than provided. You can easily go to any home improvement store and get a closet system that is either floor based or wall hung. Create the design you like based on your needs, measure out how much product you'll need, purchase, and install!

Q: What décor items are worth splurging on?

A: It's totally acceptable to spend a little extra on your window treatments. Cheap curtains are obvious (to me, anyway), and I like to know that I have quality curtains that won't sun bleach over time. Higher quality window treatments have a classic look that can go with any décor, even if you make changes to your look.

Q: What are three things you can't live without?

A: I can't live without my impact driver, mascara, and coffee.

Q: What's one piece of advice you'd give to a homeowner who wants to renovate?

A: With certain projects, spending more upfront is usually going to benefit you in the long run, especially when it comes to flooring. You should always opt for higher quality products and materials when installing things like a deck or tile, as they'll last much longer. Nothing is worse than having to redo your deck prematurely.

Q: What common mistake do you often see homeowners make?

A: I see a lot of people dive into a renovation project and start tearing out a wall to open up rooms. This is problematic if you don't know if that wall is load bearing or not, which can lead to huge issues with structural damage. If you're going to tear out a wall, always ask a professional builder or engineer first.

JAMIE WALKER

Jamie Walker, president and lead designer of Walker Home Design, grew up building houses alongside his father and grandfather who had been building since the 1940s. In 1993, he started his career as a draftsman and worked for a couple of local Utah home builders. Jamie's speciality is drawing homes that have unique features or an artistic flair about them. He loves to find ways to incorporate hidden passageways, lofts, unconventional uses for a space and thinking outside the box when it comes to designing a home.

MARLA DEE

Clear out the clutter with professional organizer Marla Dee. In 1999, Marla founded her Utah-based business Clear & Simple to help transform the stressful and overwhelming world of organizing into an experience that could be fun and simple for everyone. Marla offers a full array of services, including hands-on training, consultations, workshops, and virtual services. STEPHEN FITZWATER

Fitzwater is a sustainable gardener, author, and owner of EZ Gates & Gardens, a modular, vinyl raised-bed planter company. When he moved to Salt Lake City 30 years ago, Stephen had to learn how to successfully grow an organic garden in Utah's unique climate. The idea for his raised-bed planters came from years of gardening experience and his desire to help the everyday gardener create a thriving low maintenance garden. Finally, a well-designed, durable model was born and happy gardeners can enjoy a fresh garden in their own yards.

Be wattsmart to reduce your energy use and your environmental footprint.

Talk to an energy advisor from Rocky Mountain Power and learn about options for managing your energy bills and reducing your environmental impact.

Find out how you can earn cash back and discount pricing on efficient lighting solutions, heating and cooling, weatherization and more. These incentives can help you turn your house into a wattsmart home that's big on comfort and low on energy costs. Some examples include:

- Smart thermostats – Control your comfort like never before and save more than $50 a year in energy costs with a Wi-Fi-enabled smart thermostat.
- Ductless heat pumps – Get up to $1,300 cash back and save up to 50% on heating costs when you make the switch to an energy-efficient ductless heating and cooling system.
- Cool Keeper – Join more than 100,000 Utahns and earn a $20 bill credit every year when you take part in this wattsmart program.

If you're already on the path toward efficiency, we'll help you figure out how far you've come. And if you're just getting started, we'll show you how easy it is to save energy while increasing the comfort of your home.

We'll also provide information on solutions for Utah customers to support renewable energy. For more than 15 years, our award-winning Blue Sky program has offered you a choice to support newly developed renewable energy in the West, including 120 community-based solar projects in Utah. Nearly 44,000 Utahns are already participating.

Through our Subscriber Solar program, more than 2,500 Utahns are getting power from a new 20-megawatt solar plant in Millard County, Utah. This program is fully subscribed, but interested customers are encouraged to join the wait list.

Together with our customers, we're helping Utah enjoy a brighter future.

Learn more about saving energy and sustainable options at wattsmart.com.
