

Sal Iuliano, along with his wife, Kim, are the proud owners of Sal's Cucina Food Truck. This adventure was born out of a love for great food and heart to serve the community.

Sal's father started his family pizzeria back in 1971 in the Detroit metro area. They take great pride in the quality of the food they create. Sal and Kim have continued that pride in the St. Augustine area with Sal's Cucina.

Sal has always provided fresh baked pizzas, pasta, meatballs, and bread to his family, friends, and neighbors on weekends and holidays. He was urged repeatedly to follow his passion and get back into the food business. In early 2020 as COVID spread through the community, Sal offered pizza, pasta, and pepperoni rolls out of his home at affordable prices to ease the pain of feeding families during company closures, furloughs, and layoffs. He also created family projects with make-your-own pizza kits for those families who were struggling to keep kids entertained. As Sal faced his own week-long furloughs at a career he worked for over 30 years, he kicked this community adventure into overdrive. He took orders and made food around the clock to fill the down time.

In August 2020, Sal's dream was finally realized. He was part of a wave of permanent layoffs and used that opportunity to purchase a food truck. With help and encouragement from family and friends, his business has taken off. He doesn't just cook and serve, though. He has used his management talents to organize and network with other food trucks to help them thrive, as well.
