The Indiana Flower + Patio Show Celebrates 60 Years!

Show gardens highlight groovy greens, flower power and unique tributes to "60"

The theme for this year's garden designs at the 2018 Indiana Flower + Patio Show highlights the Show's 60th year, and landscapers are coming up with their own special tribute to the number 60.

"It seemed to be an obvious theme to tie into with the 60th anniversary of the show, but each landscaper is taking that number and putting a special twist on their garden feature," said the show's landscape coordinator, Bill Brown of William H. Brown Landscape.

"It's not going to be your typical garden show," Brown said. "One landscape designer is pairing a love for the outdoors with his love of automobiles, creating a garage to feature his 1960 Catalina Convertible. And another is paying tribute to NASA — which was formed in 1958 — by including a replica of the Saturn five rocket that launched man to the moon."

A humongous 60th birthday cake, hula hoops and various takes on clocks and moving through time will be highlighted throughout the gardens as well.

Of course, you can't have a big event in Indiana without an homage to the Indianapolis 500. One of the landscape designers is paying special honor to A.J. Foyt, who won the Indianapolis 500 three times in the 60s, by creating a checkerboard patio and including graphics of the traditional Gasoline Alley.

"There's another garden surrounding the art of Andy Warhol, who was a leading figure in the visual art movement and whose work flourished by the 1960s," Brown said. "There will be umbrellas hanging in the garden and other unique touches inspired by his art." Contributing landscapers are:

- Above and Beyond Companies
- All Pro Landscaping
- BLC Outdoor Services
- Budde Landscaping
- Calvin Landscape
- Country Gardens Landscaping
- Divine Outdoor Services
- Grok Landscapes by Design
- Indianapolis Landscape Association
- Kenneth Watson Design
- McNamara Florist
- New Leaf Landscape Design Studio & Supply House
- The O Studio Landscapes
- Pro Care Horticultural Services
- Property Pros
- The Turf Boss
- Vive Exterior Design

In addition to the garden display, the Belgard Challenge will once again feature three companies competing to create an outdoor space using materials from the landscape supplier: JMT Landscape, Green Vista Landscaping and Precision Cut Lawn. Show-goers get to choose the winner through onsite voting.

And the Flower Market is expanding this year to include both West Pavilion and Expo Hall.

"That way, visitors to the show can leave out of both show entrances with their flowers," Brown said. "People are always asking for more fresh flowers, so we are happy to give them that opportunity."

The gardens are on display as part of the Indiana Flower + Patio Show and are included with regular admission.

Take Your Blooms to Go

The American Institute of Floral Designers (AIFD) is managing the fresh-cut flowers-to-go portion of the show, which is the flagship of the Plant Market. Show visitors get the chance to take home the scents, colors and textures of the season. The large, colorful retail display offers fabulous bouquets of healthy, hardy blossoms that can be purchased to take home at great prices!

AIFD will bring Show attendees the freshest flowers possible. sourced from around the world. Be sure to stop in for the best buys in fresh-cut flowers.

AIFD designers also will be onsite daily to help with flower selection, commentating on floral design, hosting hands-on workshops and answering any questions you have about caring for your fresh flowers.

Joanie Sprague Talks "Trading Spaces" Revival

Model turned carpenter joins TLC's highly-anticipated show

Joanie Sprague's career takes her in many different directions, but it always brings the reality TV star back to her lifelong love of carpentry.

Perhaps best known as the first runner-up on cycle six of "America's Next Top Model," Joanie's career has taken her all over the world — but has always brought her back to the basics.

From modeling, Joanie went on to co-host DIY Network's "Run My Renovation," working with John DeSilvia as homeowners allowed a room in their house to be completely transformed according to the whims of online users, who voted on everything from flooring to fixtures, cabinets to cooktops, and moldings to mantelpieces.

On the show, Joanie got to build, renovate and show off her skills as a carpenter.

She got her first taste of construction and handyman skills as a child, helping her dad around the church. She loves to get her hands dirty and jump right into exciting construction projects.

A licensed contractor, Joanie has also appeared in DIY's "Man Caves" and "Yardcore."

Now, Joanie is joining a team of home improvement all-stars for the highly-anticipated revival of TLC's "Trading Spaces," which is returning after a 10-year hiatus.

The show revolves around two sets of neighbors as they redecorate a room in each other's homes. Each team gets two days and $2,000 as well as help from professional designers and carpenters.

Joanie's goal is to "help other women tackle projects at home by themselves."

Joanie appears at the Flower + Patio Show Friday, March 16 through Sunday, March 18!

Vintage Meets Modern with Tyler Wisler

Interior designer guru and HGTV star takes your space to the next level

With more than 18 years in the design industry, Tyler Wisler has established himself as one of New York's most influential and dynamic designers with an international clientele.

Tyler earned a certificate from the New York School of Interior Design and graduated from Marymount University with a Bachelor of Arts in interior design. Since then, he has been exciting people with his unique approach to tailoring environments through the integration of vintage industrial elements dovetailed with modern sensibilities.

These fashionably aspirational spaces include a hint of the unexpected, which keep the environments lively and promotes conversation.

Tyler has been featured on hit shows like HGTV's "Design Star," ABC's "Good Morning America" and NBC's "George To the Rescue." With an ear to the ground and a discerning eye, he has been sought out by not only the mega-online retailer OpenSky to be one of their taste-makers, but he is also an "eBay Influencer" and a content creator for Skype.

Most notably, Tyler is a Pinterest "Pinfluencer" in both the home décor and men's fashion categories, touted by both Mashable and the Huffington Post as "one to follow." He has been seen in "Architectural Digest," "Elle Décor," "New York Spaces," and recently "HOSS Magazine" offered Tyler a position as one of their permanent celebrity contributors.

Companies like Kohler, 3M, BRIZO, Cosentino and Benjamin Moore have all collaborated for that edgy aesthetic and authentic narrative that only Tyler can bring to a project. He recently added to his extensive resume by launching a line of eco-luxury bedding for Butterfly Dreams linens.

Whether talking trends, demonstrating a DIY project, or creating a rocking interior, Tyler believes everyone has the right to be surrounded by great design.

Learn how to keep your space lively with Tyler on Saturday, March 10 and Sunday, March 11!

The Hoosier Gardener Won't Let Your Garden Go to Pot

Dig in for tips on how to plant your pots, window boxes and other containers

Jo Ellen Meyers Sharp has nearly 30 years of experience in growing plants in pots — she has an all-season, container-planting business for both residential and commercial locations called Going to Pot.

A contributor to "Indiana Gardening" and "Edible Indy" magazines, Jo Ellen edits "Iowa Gardener," "Michigan Gardening," "Minnesota Gardener" and "Wisconsin Gardening" magazines.

She has also been writing a weekly gardening column for "The Indianapolis Star" since 1989, and she is a popular speaker and frequent guest on television, radio and web broadcasts.

For 17 years, she has worked every spring at a large, independent garden center in Indianapolis, where she formerly was the buyer of perennials and nursery stock.

She's treasurer of Garden Writers Association (GWA): The Association of Garden Communicators; director of the Indianapolis Museum of Art Horticultural Society; member of Indiana Landmarks Cultural Landscape Committee; director of Indy Food Co-op, which operates Pogue's Run Grocer; a member of GreatGardenSpeakers.com, co-author of "Indiana Gardener's Guide," author of "The Visitor's Guide to American Gardens;" and a recent contributor to "The Gardener's Garden" (Phaidon Press) and "The Oxford Companion to the Garden" (Oxford University Press).

Jo Ellen blogs at hoosiergardener.com.

As a garden coach, Jo Ellen helps clients learn about their landscapes and what to do when, problem solving and other advice.

Ask Hoosier Gardener Jo Ellen Meyers Sharp your potting questions when she appears at the Flower + Patio Show on Monday, March 12; Tuesday, March 13; and Wednesday, March 14.

Hoosier Carrie Petty Shows How to "Grow a Beautiful Life" Local Master Gardener offers tips on mastering your garden dream

Carrie Petty is a fourthgeneration Hoosier, Master Gardener and a garden and lifestyle blogger. It is her passion to show people how to "Grow a Beautiful Life!"

Petty wants people to see their home's outdoor spaces as an extension of the interior, and vice-versa. She helps people decorate their homes with a mind to combining the natural elements surrounding it.

"There's a great opportunity for bringing the outdoors inside, and really just making the great room extend to the outdoors and making the outdoors extend indoors, especially to the kitchen," she said. "Even if it's just a few feet out onto your patio, you can have an herb garden and a real outdoor living space. We have more room than just the rooms inside our house." An amateur naturalist, painter and photographer, Carrie and her husband Chris were custom home builders and designers for more than 20 years.

Now she's taking what she's learned and is using that to teach others. Plus, she gets the chance to do what she loves best — playing in the dirt!

With topics that include "Putting the Garden to Bed" and "Best Garden Tools for Beginners," Carrie's blog shares everything from garden herb tips and gifts for the gardener to garden checklists and easy ways to get more nature in your busy world.

Carrie has also appeared on WISH-TV's Indy Style with garden party ideas, garden décor ideas, how to use the herbs from your garden and how to create a beautiful entrance to your home.

Carrie appears at the Flower + Patio Show on Monday, March 12; Tuesday, March 13; Thursday, March 15; Saturday, March 17; and Sunday, March 18 with tips on mastering your garden dream and how gardening and dirty hands equal a beautiful life.

She is a horticulture liaison to the Purdue Plant & Pest Diagnostic Laboratory and is part of member advisory boards for the Purdue Master Gardener Program, Purdue Master Gardener Leadership Program, Purdue Rainscaping Education Program, Purdue Horticulture Gardens and the Purdue Arboretum. Also a member of the American Society for Horticultural Science, Garden Writers of America and the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Specialists Association, Rosie has received many awards from the Garden Writers Association and a special award of recognition from the Purdue Master Gardener Program's Master Gardener Annual Conference.

As co-author of "Possum in the Pawpaw Tree: A Seasonal Guide to Midwestern Gardening," Lerner dug into down-to-earth subjects like when to start seeds, why plants might fail to bloom, pruning techniques, identifying and controlling common pests, home fruit production, plant propagation, harvesting and storing, and seasonal gift ideas.

On Wednesday, March 14, Rosie discusses gardening with arthritis and gardening for pollinators. Join her for some gardening guidance!

Master Gardener John Orick Helps Your Gardening Grow Purdue Master Gardener State Coordinator gives gardening knowledge

Turfgrass Science — yes, it's a thing. In fact, John Orick earned his Bachelor of Science and Master of Science from Purdue University in Turfgrass Science.

A turf manager oversees and implements cultural management programs for the maintenance, production, conditioning and performance of a wide variety of turf areas like lawns, athletic fields, golf courses, parks and sod farms.

Managing a visually-pleasing and manicured turf that is subject to intense use requires a foundation of technical expertise, the ability to make precise management decisions and a wealth of practical experience. John's work experience includes nearly 10 years in the golf course maintenance industry, including four years as an assistant golf course superintendent at two different Indiana golf courses.

He served as a Purdue Extension Educator in Madison County for 16 years. John currently serves as Purdue Master Gardener State Coordinator in the Department of Horticulture and Landscape Architecture.

John has worked on teams to develop extension programs such as "Purdue Master Gardeners ... Growing Through Leadership" and the Purdue Rainscaping Education Program.

He provides leadership for the administration of the Purdue Master Gardener Program statewide. In 2017, nearly 3,000 Master Gardener volunteers in Indiana contributed more than 169,000 volunteer hours.

John Orick offers spring lawn care tips when he appears at the Flower + Patio Show on Friday, March 16.

Calvin Landscape

Garden Name: Rockin' the '60s

Step into our garden that is decorated in homage to the 60th year anniversary of the Indianapolis Flower + Patio Show. Pictures and signs can be found throughout the garden that pays tribute to the anniversary. After entering, you will see a custom engraved plaque commemorating the anniversary embedded into the paving. Looking up from the plaque, you are drawn in by a custom cabana, grill island, and fire pit gathering area. Upon reaching the cabana, visitors will walk past the custom outdoor grill island with a "60" built into the facade. Stepping up into and underneath the cabana, an inviting fire pit brings warmth to the custom gathering space. Commemorating the 60th anniversary, landscape lighting enhances the landscaping design features within the garden. Combining an open patio gathering space design with a soft evergreen screen, the visitors to the "60th year anniversary of the Indiana Flower + Patio Show" will be invited to share and cherish the decorated history of the Indiana Flower + Patio Show.

While the steel archways divide the rooms, providing an open and airy experience to enjoy the surrounding plants, trees and flowers.

Pro Care Horticultural Services

Garden Name: Memories of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Pro Care Horticultural Services has had the luxury of being involved in the Indiana Flower + Patio Show since 1972. That's 46 years! Interestingly enough, this year is also the 60th Anniversary of the show. With that being said, Pro Care decided it might be a good time to look back over so many years of being involved in the show and revisit some of the more interesting ideas that we have displayed in the past. We thought it might be interesting to put some of these ideas from the past in front of the public once again...only this time...treated in a new and different way. Concepts, ideas and treatments can always be utilized in an interesting way, taking something old and making it new again.

Property Pro's

Garden Name: Forward to the Past

Take a stroll through Property Pro's garden and prepare to be transported back 60 years. Here we give a nostalgic nod to the 1958 landscape.
